Kitchen Items by Marilyn Wickenheiser

APRONS:

There were 23 aprons which included the wheelchair aprons . There is one left. A couple of dozen aprons would be perfect number for the 2018 sale

MICROWAVE BOWLS:

Sold out on Friday even though there were 86 small and 8 large at the beginning of the sale. Certainly a lot more could be sold.

CASSEROLE CARRIERS:

There were 13 in the sale. This year they were a hard sell. The majority were sold on Saturday after the price was lowered and items were really promoted.

Coffee cozies:

There were 55 sold and 12 left to carry over.

DISHCLOTHS:

There were 118 packages of 3 and 70 packages sold were sold

Dryer balls

There were 21 sets of dryer balls and all were sold on Friday.

KITCHEN HAND TOWELS:

There were eight of different styles and all were sold. The sense was that this is about the right amount of inventory.

TORTILLA BAGS & POTATO BAKERS:

There was a low number of these – only 3 – and all were sold by Friday night and there were some requests for more.

POTHOLDERS:

Of the seven sets, six were sold.

SCRUBBIES:

This inventory was small – only 10 – and these sold out very quickly. There is a huge demand for the ones that made out of the netting material. Find a pattern for both knit and crochet on the PATTERNS page.
