Dr. Mike Daley Presents the Life and Music of Bob Dylan

Calling all Grandmothers and Grand-others,

We hope you are all safe and well through these difficult times. As hard as the effects of Covid have been for each of us, we can only imagine how devastating this has been for the African Grandmothers and their families, dealing with not one but two pandemics.

Regrettably, our previously scheduled congregated fundraising events had to all be cancelled, thereby greatly diminishing our regular donations to the SLF and thus in turn to the Grandmothers themselves. We do however know that some of you are already actively engaged in online fundraising events and congratulations to you for the great successes with these that we are hearing about.

We, Toronto Grandmothers Embrace, are just now embarking upon our very first online fundraising venture and are most excited about it. We sincerely hope you will partner with us in promoting this event to make it a huge success and help us surpass all of our previous fundraising goals. The scope and possibilities of a, not only national, but international event is exhilarating. And amazingly, there is no limit to the number of registrations allowed. Please join us by sharing our promotional information with your own group members, family and friends and on all your social media sites as well as with your entire contact list, local organizations and any groups to which you currently belong.

Our event will feature an online presentation by our own local Dr Mike Daley, musician, lecturer and musicologist. He will share his fabulous video of The Bob Dylan Story: His Life and His Music. This program will offer unique insights into Dylan's rise to stardom in a simple and engaging performance.

The presentation will take place in the comfort of your own Covid-free home environment and will be available over a 3 week period running from November 16 until December 7, 2020.

Although there is no charge for this event, one registration per household is required which will in turn provide you with your link to the performance.

In lieu of fixed event pricing, Donations to the Stephen Lewis Foundation are greatly appreciated. All donations of $20 and greater will receive tax receipts directly from the SLF.

We look forward to your participation in our event.

With best wishes, Toronto Grandmothers Embrace
