Second Chance Art Sale

The Second Chance Art Sale is a fundraiser for the work of the Rotary Club of Calgary Heritage Park. These are the same Rotarians that share the Magic of Christmas warehouse/help with moving supplies for the UG sales.

The Second Chance Art Sale is a sale of donated art. Calgarians who are moving, decluttering or renovating are invited to donate the art that no longer suits their walls. All wall art is accepted. Paintings, prints, photographs, framed or unframed this sale will find them a new home.....and raise funds for many community projects, primarily focused on youth, women, and seniors.

This huge (1000+ pieces) art sale suits all budgets. There will be art priced at hundreds of dollars but most pieces sell for $60 or under. There will also be bins of free/donate what you can. It is a great opportunity for crafters. Many buy a piece purely for the frame and/or matting.

How to Donate: Feb 2 to Mar 21 drop off art at one of 7 participating Co-op stores i.e. Macleod Trail, Auburn Bay, Oakridge, West Springs, Crowfoot, Shawnessy, Richmond Road. Look for our bins near customer service.

Rotary

As you may know, Rotary is an international service club, with over 1 million members world-wide. The Rotary Club of Calgary Heritage Park is one of 13 clubs in Calgary and has 60 members. Most of the funds that we raise go towards projects that help seniors, youth, and women. A small portion goes to international development projects. No funds raised benefit members, as we pay for all club meetings and events ourselves.
